With pagondas, buddahs, and Japanese archways setting the scene, tensions mounted until the highlight of the evening was reached, the Grand March. At exactly 9:00 the procession began, and all who attended switched their thoughts from the prom, to the post-prom dinner which was held at San Remo's Restaurant.

Never in the history of Edison sports has there been an unbeaten football team. With so much spirit, it seemed that every thing was centered around the next game.

It all started when the Fighting Eagles played games and always ended up victorious. At 7-0 we were finally recognized as a really good team by the press and other coaches.

When it rains the Eagles score! The Portage game will vouch for that. The game was billed to be close, but the score showed our team to be a real power house.

The week of November the ninth was filled with more signs and spirit than usual.

The Wallace Hornets were the Eagles last obstacle to a perfect season and the game proved to be one of the most rugged of the year. The fans were great as they were all year. The team saw that they got the satisfaction of a victory and a number one team and a first rate coaching staff.

Festivities after the game included a caravan of police cars, a fire truck full of Fighting Eagles, three buses of fans, and about 50 cars which all went to Edison gym to celebrate.

The next day opened with the biggest and best pep session in Edison history. The team did their thing by throwing coaches Hamilton, Halashak, Hershey and Renn in the showers.

T. Taylor hotfoots it through the woods toward finish line.

C.C. Squad, ROW 1: B. Witka, T. Bolles, M. Anderson, T. Kiraly, T. Taylor. ROW 2: R. Palk, F. Korpak, B. Cuellar, Coach Neal. The Fighting Eagle wrestling squads headed by coaches Fritz and Halaschak completed an inconsistent season with a bright outlook. A young squad getting much experience will be good soon. Results this year in dual meets showed much promise.

The program has developed tremendously in the last three years, and the addition of new uniforms added to the color and excitement of the year.

Responsibilities Mount in Junior Year

Moving to upperclass ranks brought many responsibilities as the Juniors soon realized.

Homecoming, first on the agenda, meant hard work in the production of a first place float "Crush Em to Defect". Class rings were distributed and displayed by their proud owners.

Prom preparations were soon underway with money making projects, bake sales, car washes and jerseys sales. Much hard work, time and effort went into the decorating and planning of a successful prom.

As the year ended the Juniors were finally ready to become next years' Seniors.

In Memory of Kevin Guess

Kevin Guess was a member of the class of '74'. He participated in track, wrestling and cross-country his freshman and sophomore years. He also enjoyed intramural games and was interested in the Art and Foreign Language Clubs.

With a little experience under their hats, they met Homecoming with great enthusiasm. Building the float "An Eagle Victory is as Good As Gold" and capturing first place for their hall project "Ban the Kougars".

Sophomores took such classes as Geometry, World History, and Biology II.

At the close of the year all thoughts turned to ordering class rings and anticipation of next year.

Becoming freshman is a frightening but exciting experience. Beginning at the bottom, he makes new friends, finds new interest and begins to adjust to the busy schedule of high school.

The freshman girls found out what it's all about with G.A.A. Initiation . . . eggs, pig tails, wearing diapers, eating baby food, skits and a hot dog roast. Then came the excitement of the first Homecoming, building their first float "Electrify Em" and decorating the hall.

The end of the year brought new enthusiasm to the students in anticipation of moving up to sophomore status.
